

An arts initiative to empower & celebrate a community.

The Chelsea Arts Collective works in partnership with the First Branch Community Collaborative to create community arts initiatives, programming and events that inspire and empower. We believe that art is to be shared and celebrated, by inviting people of all ages and backgrounds to make their mark on the world.

The CHELSEA BARN QUILT TRAIL

A Community Arts Installation

BARN QUILT PROPERTIES

What are all those painted squares?

Barn Quilts. Barn quilts are panels of plywood painted with geometric designs that resemble the patchwork of a quilt. These painted panels are hung on the outside of a home, barn, or business, and often have symbolic meaning for the property owner.

The first official barn quilt trail began in 2001 in Adams County, Ohio. Donna Sue Groves wanted to honor her mother, Maxine, a noted quilter, with a painted quilt square on the family's barn. Some historians have hypothesized barn quilts have been around since the time of the Underground Railroad.

The Chelsea Barn Quilt Project and Trail was imagined by a group of residents who saw art as a way to bring people together and energize the community.
